

The newer Testorment

RAPTOR JESUS

He went extinct

for your sins

The Book of Chalk

during the Mesozoic era, God went through an experimental Scales phase, similar to Picasso's Blue period. Rather than making beings in his own image, he populated the Earth with giant lumbering reptiles. Other scriptures such as the Dead Primordial Sea scrolls suggest that God was actually a dinosaur during his teens, and was the true inspiration for Godzilla.

While known to themselves as "Giant Awesomes", dinosaurs kept no written records, so scientists did not learn their real name until modern technology made it possible to read their fossilized minds. At first, the dinosaurs rampaged at will, eating each other, stepping on houses, and generally causing major property damage. God was forced to intervene when His mother found out about the world He had created, and ordered Him to "clean up this mess before your father gets home."

Unwilling to enter His world, God created Raptor Jesus. Raptor Jesus's primary role on Earth was to convert the dinosaurs

from the paganistic theory of Evolution by fostering a new belief in Intelligent Design. Opponents of his theory, primarily the Romans, viciously attacked Him and His followers, condemning them to extinction via PBS

and really bad singing.

The Book of Sepia

And the Lord Raptor say

So look at this World and know, it was made from a giant Bowl of Ramen Noodles.

And the Romans says: NO!

So look at this Bowl wich was created by a giant flying Spaghetti Moster.

And the Romans say: He should be extincted for such a sacrilege.

The Book of Mystery

Followers of Raptor Jesus are easily identifiable because their eyes burn with the fervor of the righteous. They live by the following simple beliefs and most likely have one or more of these statements tattooed on their cocks:

I
Love Raptor Jesus or die.

II Raptor Jesus is the savior of all mankind, and will deliver thee to carnivorous enlightenment. (Many have enormous hemipenis)

III Believe in the Lord Raptor Jesus, or have your genitals removed

IIII
Raptor Jesus will rise again!

IIIII
Raptor Jesus went extinct for your sins!

IIIIII
Raptor Jesus loves your kids!

IIIIIII
The divine trinity of Raptor Jesus shelters us from the coming Velocirapture!

IIIIIII
Raptor Jesus is my messiyuh!

Raptor Grace

To be said at every meal, snack, and piece of gum

Raptor Lord, and these, your gifts, which we are about to receive from thy merciful talons. Through the bounty of Raptor Christ,
our Cretaceous
Lord.

Roooarr!

Calendar

Raptor Jesus was here again.

This is the Endtime.

No need to count the Days.

Eat, drink and multiply thee.

The Meat Mess

"Do you belive in our Lord Raptor Jesus? Answer with Roooaar."

"Are you sure? You want to pray to a Raptor? Answer with Roooaar."

"Are you sure? You want to eat the meat he gives to us? Answer with Roooaar."

"Take the Meat he gives to us.
This is his flesh. "

"His Power will come to you through the holy Flesh . Raise your Talons and swing your Tail. You are a child of Rapto Jesus."

Now praise his hooliness
our Lord Raptor Jesus

Parthenogenesis and the Messiah

The female human has two X chromosomes and therefore can give birth ONLY to females via parthenogenesis. In Varanus sp. (the Komodo dragon and relatives), parthenogenesis can produce only males. This is compelling proof that Jesus was, in fact, a monitor lizard.

The Raurvelation

of Dylasaur

The final book of the Raptor Bible, Raurvelations, was written by Raptor Jesus's apostle, Dylasaur, after he received visions of Earth's end times while guzzling absinthe and huffing kittens. His visions of The VelociRapture, Armageddon, and ants crawling out of his skin are all described in horrifying detail. According to scripture, Gabriel will blow his horn, and believers will raise their arms to the heavens, but their flesh will be ripped from their bones and sucked into the sky, because Raptor Jesus is hungry and loves the taste of gullibility.

The second Coming

The second coming of Raptor Jesus actually occurred last Thursday. Many were expecting a massive Earth shattering event to announce His presence but instead He arrived on United Airlines Flight 47 to Dulles. He has not yet rendered judgment on the sinners of the world but instead is sitting in His basement eating Ramen, contemplating the fate of the world, and spinning a dreidel.

The VelociRapture

Raptor Jesus is the only true savior. When our lord rises again during The Velocirapture, heretics (which include [but not limited too] Jews, Christians, Muslims and atheists) and worshipers of TyrannoSatan shall be cast underfoot and disemboweled by his holy talons.
